2010 at
Camp Glen Gray

IT'S FUN AND SPOOKY!

Phone: 201-327-7234

The Saturday Program

The Spook-a-ree is Camp Glen Gray's Saturday program in October. Arrival is Saturday morning, October 9, between 9am and 10am. Arrival activity is set-up and decorate your campsite or cabin then head to the dining hall for pumpkin carving and lunch – bring a bag lunch we will provide hot and cold beverages.

The spooky outdoor fun begins with an afternoon of activities run by the Glen Gray staff that includes stuff-a-scarecrow, spooky archery, spooky golf, Halloween group games, spooky arts & crafts, Halloween scavenger hunt, Halloween parade in your costume followed by the Haunted Hike. A nutritious kid-friendly hot supper is served in the dining hall. The evening campfire, with skits, songs, and, cheers closes out the day's events.

You may head home then, or return to your campsite or cabin if staying overnight.

Sunday morning is an optional pre-paid cold breakfast then pack up and head for home.
